

Hyannis Athletic Association

2015 Application for Membership

The Hyannis Athletic Association is a nonprofit association with the sole intent of providing recreation and good will through sports. The Association believes the best way to achieve its goal and intent is through the Cape Cod Baseball League. The HAA is run entirely by volunteers.

By sponsoring the Hyannis CCBL baseball team, the Hyannis Harbor Hawks, the Association provides family entertainment for all ages and uses the Hyannis franchise as a way to provide sports camps for youth in the area. The Association also provides college scholarships for local graduating students.

All money raised is used to operate the ball club and to maintain McKeon Park.
